Sunday Sermons

12/30, TODAY, 11:00AM – "We Are Not Born Equal"

Sally Borden, Guest Speaker

In the U. S., we may say we are all born equal from a philosophical, standpoint, but we are, in fact, all born quite unequal. What produces this inequality and what can we do about it? And what resolutions can we make today to mitigate this fact of life?

For the second half of the service, congregants will share resolutions.

1/6, TODAY, 11:00AM - "All Things Are New"

Rev. Dr. Stephen Butler Murray, Minister

As we celebrate a new year, how do we truly make all things new? We have inherited a lot from the previous year, so what can we do to transform and inspire this new 2019?

1/13 11:00AM – "Hosea Ballou and Universalism"

Rev. Dr. Stephen Butler Murray, Minister

One of the most important architects of the Universalist movement in America was Hosea Ballou. Today, we will explore his history and legacy, and finally answer the question: Is Todd Ballou, our organist and director of music, related to Hosea?

Auld Lang Syne

Alternate words (source unknown)

1.

A smile is quite a funny thing, it wrinkles up your face And when it's gone you'll never find, its secret hiding place But far more wonderful it is, to see what smiles can do You smile at one, he smiles at you. And so one smile makes two

2.

He smiles at someone, since you smiled, And then that one smiles back

And that one smiles until in truth, you fail in keeping track And since a smile can do great good, By cheering hearts of care Let's smile and smile and not forget, that smiles go everywhere.

Words by Robert Buyrns (translated), old Scotch Air

3.

Should old acquaintance be forgot, and never brought to mind? Should old acquaintance be forgot, and old lang syne? For auld lang syne, my dear, for auld lang syne, we'll take a cup of kindness yet, for auld lang syne.

4.

And there's a hand my trusty friend! And give us a hand o' thine! And we'll take a right good-will draught, for auld lang syne. For auld lang syne, my dear, for auld lang syne, we'll take a cup of kindness yet, for auld lang syne.
